

Armen Varosyan, Deputy Team Leader

---

Armen Varosyan, is a development expert with 25 years of work experience working in international organizations such as, the Council of Europe, Counterpart International, Research Triangle Institute, Urban Institute, Armenia Assembly of America NGO training and Resource Center, and the World Bank. He has experience managing complex projects and providing multi-sector expertise in programs on local governance, housing, strategic planning, citizen participation, inter-municipal cooperation, public-private partnership/CSR, youth, waste management, elections, human rights, etc.

Mr. Varosyan is highly skilled in project design and management, grants management, strategic planning, coordinating program activities with different stakeholders (government agencies, donor community, local NGOs, etc.) and developing project proposals to attract external funding from the EU, USAID, Swiss Development Cooperation, Habitat for Humanity, Eurasia Foundation.