

Armine Tuhikyan, Policy Research Expert

Armine Tuhikyan, is a development expert with more than 25 years of experience in local democracy, public participation, capacity building for improved municipal services, environmental awareness and advocacy, in public and media relations. She served as an expert and managed many projects in the aforementioned sectors funded by USAID, EU, Council of Europe, UNDP, as well as Dutch, British and US Embassies.

Armine Tuhikyan is supporting the Urban Foundation in fundraising, donor relations, networking and project design. She developed project proposals to attract external funding for the projects (EU, SDC, USAID, Dutch Foreign Ministry, Embassies (US, British, Norwegian, the Netherlands, etc.)).